ATTORNEY BRYAN L. LECLERC NAMED AS PAUL HARRIS FELLOW BY THE FAIRFIELD ROTARY CLUB

Attorney Bryan L. LeClerc was recently named as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Fairfield Rotary Club at the organization’s annual meeting. Paul Percy Harris was a Chicago, Illinois, attorney best known for founding Rotary International in 1905, a volunteer organization of business and professional leaders who provide community service through a range of humanitarian, intercultural and educational activities. The motto of Rotary International is “Service Above Self.” Paul Harris honorees are individuals who meet the highest professional and personal standards.

Bryan L. LeClerc is a widely recognized lawyer in the fields of Business & Commercial Law, Zoning & Land Use, and Litigation. He is admitted to practice in Connecticut, New York, the U.S. District Court of Connecticut, the U.S. District Courts in the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Attorney LeClerc is a graduate of Fairfield University and the University of Connecticut School of Law, with honors. In addition to his work with Rotary International, he serves as Vice President of Legal Affairs and is on the Board of Directors for the Connecticut Yankee Council of the Boy Scouts of America; the Board of Managers for the Fairfield YMCA; is Scoutmaster of Troop 82; a past President of the Fairfield University Alumni Association, as well as many other volunteer positions.
