Berchem, Moses & Devlin Collects Toys for Yale-New Haven Hospital

NEW HAVEN, Conn. – Attorneys with the law firm of Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C. helped collect more than 400 toys for the Yale-New Haven Hospital Toy Closet as part of a drive connected with the Oct. 20 Yale-Penn football game at the Yale Bowl.

The firm's attorneys joined with the Walter Camp Football Foundation in sponsoring a tailgate party that featured picture-perfect autumn weather and attracted 250 people. Toys for the Yale-New Haven Hospital Auxiliary's Toy Closet were collected during the party prior to the Ivy League game. The Toy Closet program provides new, age-appropriate and educational toys for pediatric patients in Yale-New Haven's Children's Hospital.

Following the party, attorneys, clients and friends watched Yale claim victory over the University of Pennsylvania, 27-13, from skyboxes in the Yale Bowl.

“The event was a great success, and we are proud to have been part of a toy drive that benefits hospitalized children,” said Mario F. Coppola, a partner at Berchem, Moses & Devlin who also serves on the Board of Governors of the Walter Camp Football Foundation. “Particularly as the holidays approach, it is rewarding to participate in an event that helps children who can’t be home with their families,” he added. Mr. Coppola also praised the efforts of volunteers from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, a 45-year-old area organization that selects and honors talented college football players across America, and also raises funds for charitable endeavors.

Berchem, Moses & Devlin is a multi-specialty law practice with offices in Milford and Westport. Since 1933, the firm has provided high quality legal services to clients throughout Connecticut. Clients include individuals, small and midsize businesses, government agencies and Fortune 500 companies. For more information, please visit www.bmdl.com.
