

MEDIA CONTACT:

Mary Moran
Foxford Communications
203-923-3262
mkmoran28@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Berchem, Moses & Devlin Contributes to Homes with Hope

WESTPORT, Conn. (Jan. 28, 2013) – The law firm of Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C. has made a monetary donation to help individuals and families facing one of the coldest winters in years transition from homelessness into permanent housing

The law firm, located at 27 Imperial Avenue, donated funds to Homes with Hope, a local, not-for-profit agency that provides emergency shelter, permanent housing and other supportive services for the homeless.

Berchem, Moses & Devlin regularly contributes to charitable endeavors as a way of giving back to the communities in which its offices are located. Ira W. Bloom, a senior partner at the firm who is also Westport Town Attorney, said the contribution to Homes with Hope serves a critical purpose. “With 2013 turning out to be one of the toughest winters in years, the impact on the homeless is particularly concerning. Our contribution to Homes with Hope will provide help to those who need it most.”

The donation from the law firm will be used by Homes with Hope clients for purchases like food, gasoline and household items as they take up residence in apartments sponsored by the agency.

“Homes with Hope serves an important role in Westport, and the law firm is pleased to contribute to the agency’s mission of helping the homeless return to independence,” said Mr. Bloom.

Berchem, Moses & Devlin is a multi-specialty law practice with offices in Milford and Westport. Since 1933, the firm has provided high quality legal services to clients throughout Connecticut.

Clients include individuals, small and midsize businesses, government agencies and Fortune 500 companies. For more information, please visit www.bmdlaw.com.

#