NAVIGATING SPECIAL EDUCATION LAW: Attorneys Representing Parents & School Boards Discuss the Issues

Two Convenient Times and Locations

April 7, 2010: 6:45-8:30 pm, Wednesday, Fairfield Public Library. Navigating Special Education Law and Advocacy: Attorneys Representing Parents and School Boards Discuss the Issues. This free seminar will address what every parent should know about their child's basic special education rights in and outside of school. Hear both sides of the story and learn how attorneys representing parents and school boards can work together to resolve various disputes. Presented by Phillip J. Cohn, attorney representing parents, from the Law Office of Phillip J. Cohn, LLC, Of Counsel to Goldman, Gruder & Woods, LLC, and Michelle Laubin, attorney representing school boards, from Berchem, Moses, & Devlin, P.C. Sponsored by FAVOR, a non-profit statewide family advocacy organization serving families, children and youth dealing with a broad spectrum of behavioral and mental health needs. This seminar will be held at the Fairfield Public Library, Rotary Room, Second Floor, 1080 Old Post Road, Fairfield, CT 06824. All welcome! Reservations are suggested.
